HIDDEN IN CAVE FOUR DAYS

Full details are to hand to-day from our Wuchow correspondent of the experiences which Miss Blanche Tobin, of the wreeked on Tai Island. Church Missionary Society, suffered whilst in the hands of a gang of bandits who held her captive for forty-four days. She was eventually released on the 2nd instant on payment of ransom totalling $10,200 (Kwangsi currency). The original demand was for $86,000....

An interesting feature now disclosed is that Miss Tobin rock, the majority of the crew was taken in error for the Rev. C. J. Lowe. Once only was any violence resorted to, this being when the brigand chief, in a fit of anger, struck her twice with a rotten stick.

On being released, Miss Tobin was in a state of considerable physical weakness, due to the fact that she had been half-starved, for whilst there was sufficient food, it was only partly cooked and was both unpalatable and indigestible. After a few days' rest, Miss Tobin, according to latest reports to hand, hoped to resume her interrupted journey under escort.

STATESMEN ALOOFNESS FROM

ABRAHAM LINCOLN QUOTED

President Coolidge's Armistice Day speech was among the subjects touched upon by Mr. Stanley Baldwin, the Premier, in the course of a statement on the Anglo-French naval compromise in the House of Commons yesterday. Mr. Lloyd George had attacked the Government policy, and asked that it be made clear that the Pact had been abandoned. .

Mr. Baldwin agreed that the work of disarmament must begin all over again, but declared that the compromise was an honest attempt to end the Geneva deadlock.

He refused to believe that the British reservation to the Kellogg Pact and the negotiation of the compromise had aroused suspicion in the United States, but declared that the lack of mutual understanding between Europe and America, as stressed by President Coolidge, was largely due to the absence of personal contact.

Statesmen of Europe and statesmen of the United States, he pointed out, seldom met, and therefore, found it difficult to understand their mutual idiosyncrasies. He urged all concerned to study the differences between the political systems of the two countries.

WOMAN'S WORLD

FOR OUR LADY READERS:

Turban Hats.

VERY FLATTERING AND BECOMING.

The turban hat of velvet is being worn with a cloth, fur-trimmed, or fur coat, and so is the plain felt hat. The little cloche which has had such a long innings must take a back place, and many women are delighted, for it took far too long to put on this kind of that, because It had to be adjusted every time to Buit the fact.

If one said that a woman had to make up her face in paint powder, and smiles, to correct the unbecoming lines of the hat, it would not be an exaggaration. However, we have changed all that to-day, and the new hats are certainly very flattering and becoming to nearly every kind of beauty.

The little toques slit up over the forchead, covering one ear or both, with a beautiful jewel thrust into the felt, are great favourites.

And a new sort of tricorne has made its appearance. Very small is this shape, with perky little points—three of them, and little or no trimming at ail. They are to be seen in dolt, in satin, in panne, and in velvet, and will be one of the outstanding feature in millinary.

An unusual that seen recently consisted of a close-fitting skull cap which, covered with gardenias and leaves, simulated a flower pot so closely that few women could keep their fascinated eyes off it.

FLYING IN THE EAST.

The success which has so far attended the first Chinese long-distance flight, the complete circuit of Peking and back, should prove of much encouragement to those who development of aviation here in the South. Hongkong is particularly gratified to see such a good start made in Canton, and the Colony looks forward to the day when will play its rightful role in commercial flying. Of the value of aviation there is now no question whatever; what is more, it is becoming safer with every year that passés. On this point, we have the word of such a practical man as Sir Alan Cobham, who has been recently insisting that flying, properly carried out, is as safe as any mentioned. Indeed, he says that if figures mean anything, they prove, on a percentage or any other basis, that in civil aviation there has been less mortality than in any other form of transport. That a point that should be remembered by those who may have any prejudice against the development of aviation.

Aviation enthusiasts in Hongkong are keenly awaiting the forma tion of the local Light Scaplane Club, the essential preliminary work in connexion with which is, SNATCHER DISGORGES we are informed, being pushed on with as rapidly as circumstances will permit. Meanwhile, it is interesting to note what the same type of Club formed in Singapore has been able to accomplish after Fong, a Chinese who had snatched an existence of only six months, for a pair of ear-rings from a Chinese four of which it was out of action awaiting the arrival of an instruct perty. tor. SUN YAT SEN'S BIRTHDAY.

KUOMINTANG CELEBRATIONS

Shanghai, Nov. 13. Much enthusiasm was displayed | in Peking, Tientain, Nanking and Shanghai during the commemora- 6 tion meetings held yesterday on the occasion of the birthday of the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen, the founder of the Kuomintang.

A large gathering of members was held at the Nanking Central Kuomintang headquarters yesterday and despite heavy rainfall, thousands of people attended meetings at the Kiangsu Provincial Government office, at the Municipal Government and at the National Government offices. The Chairman of the Legislative Yuan, Mr. Wu-Han-min, delivered a short speech, saying that the birthday of the late Dr. Sun Yatsen marked an era of freedom and independence to the people of China. Mr. Wu urged those who followed and laboured with the late Dr. Sua to continue their efforts to accomplish the unfinished work of the revolutionary movement in China. Mr. Tan Yen-kai, Chief of the Administrative Council, said it was no exaggeration to say that the late Dr. Sun had freed the people of China from a yoke which had been over them for a thousand years. The commemoration in Peking took the form of paying respect to the tomb of the late founder at ed for four. The Padre's innings was solid rather than spectacular, but the fielders have themselves to blame for allowing him to get to within three runs of a century.

When Owen Hughes came in shortly after the ten interval, the setting had already been knocked out of the bowling. He collected for darkness setting in, would assuredly have got into three figures.

The Kowloon fielding, for them, was unusually poor. Ramsay and E. F. Fincher were the only exceptions—they were always most dependable. Smith redeemed himself somewhat for his indifferent display when he brilliantly caught Quick off his own bowling.

Even Kowloon's most optimistic supporters could not have hoped to see their side get the 399 runs to tie the first innings, but with their strong batting force it was rot too much to expect them to make a draw of it in two innings. Wales, however, made short work of their batamen; he returned the splendid analysis for the day of 14 wickets for 78 runs.

Of the League matches, which were all in the Junior Division, the overwhelming win of Craigengower over Electric R.C. was rather surprising. Fletcher's bowling played a large part in the dismissal of the visitors for only 55 runs, of which skipper J. R. Way put up 26. The opposing batsmen were never comfortable rgainst Fletcher's slow legbreaks and it is felt that if "J.C." can be induced to turn out regularly, and has Fritz as his partner in opening the attack, there will not be many teams in the Junior League who will be able to run up big totals against Craigengower's 2nd

A fine innings for 53 by Paterson for the Civil Service 2nd was the feature of their match against Club de Recreio at King's Park. Bowlers held the upper hand and a draw would have been a more correct index of the game as the Civil Servants lost by only two runs in an exciting finish.

Lt.-Col. Wyatt carried the Royal Engineers to victory against the Army Ordnance Corps. After a long speel with the ball in which he took six wickets for five runs apiece he followed up this performance with a beautifully-played finnings for 47.

EMPLOYEES CLAIM THEIR

The affairs of a company, which was atated by Mr. C. A. S Russ to be very similar to the former South China Trade Protection Association, were discussed in the Summary Court yesterday afternoon, before Mr. Justice Jacks, when four claims were made against the South Imports and Exports Company and partners for the return of deposit money and wages.

It is alleged by the plaintiffs that they deposited money in return for a job, but after working for several months the premises son, plaintiff said that when he were found locked on September paid his deposit he was given a 22 and one of the partners had promissory, note. Later he saw had valuable furniture removed to an advertisement in a Chinese bankrupt.

Chan Che-fong has brought two actions, one personally, and an- that Chung Kam-ching had filed other as the Hop Shing Company, his petition in bankruptcy. No. 25 Hollywood Road. As the When asked, plaintiff denied he company he claims $650 as money knew that Chung threatened deposited. Ho Che-wan, No. 83, Connaught Road Central, claims $300 deposit | til December 5. and $80 as two months' salary. The fourth claim is by Tang Pak-ming, No. 29, Sau Wah Fong. who claims $300 deposit and $120 os three months' salary.

"Splitting" the Claim? Prior to the opening of the case. Mr. Hodgson pointed out that Chan Che-fong had filed two writs. They both bore the same date and related cause. He brought the matter forward because if the plaintiff succeeded in the action then the question of costs would arise. Mr. Russ agreed but explained that two separate notes had been given for the money and that gave the plaintiff the right to file, two

Mr. Hodgson remarked that it amounted to "splitting the claim" to avoid the cost of an action in Original Jurisdiction.

Mr. Russ said that if the plaintiff sued on the two notes under one writ the amount so claimed would be in excess of the Summary Court jurisdiction, which was $1,000. In any case he had the right to sue on the notes separate-

The point was put over until a later stage, Mr. Russ saying that he would produce authorities to show that it was not a . case of "splitting."

Condemned Practice. In opening his case, Mr. Russ explained that the facts were very similar to those in the recent South China Trade Protection Association case. In the present case people were induced to join the company and work for a reasonably good wage, but in order to do so they had to make deposits. That practice, added Mr. Russ, was getting too common in Hongkong and was much condemned. Continuing, Mr. Russ said that one of the plaintiff's stories would be that he was induced to join the company by the fifth defendant, Mrs. Chol Mong-han, while the other plaintiffs would say that they had been asked to join by one or another of the partners.

After some time money became "tight," as it always did in such a company, and consequently a prospectus was issued by the partners in which they asked the publie to subscribe for shares. The company was supposed to have a capital of $10,000, each of the women partners having shares of $1,000. However, one of the male partners had absconded and as the women had held themselves out to be partners they were responsi-ble to the plaintiffs. In fairness to the women, he added, it was likely that they know nothing about the matter and that they had been "left in the soup" them-selves. However, the plaintiffs had the right to claim, especially as the women approached the first plaintiff and offered to pay $500 in settlement and asked him not to proceed with the action.

Office Closed Down. Evidence in support of Mr. Russ's" opening statement was given by Chan Che-fong, who stated that he went to the office on September 22 and found it locked. No business had been carried on since and a prohibitory order had been made on the goods. Chung Kam-ching had an interim

There was no money. Well, who took the assets of the DEPOSITS. Company, such as your deposits? -Chung and Hui took a lot away.

The former had valuable furniture removed to his house. After the writ was issued he saw both the women defendants. They invited him into a cafe to have a cold drink and when in side they offered him $500 in soltlement and asked him not to proceed with the action against them. In reply he told them that he must consult with the other creditors (plaintiffs)...

American Express Travelers Cheques

Definition of TRAVELLERS' CHEQUES-

"The system of Travellers Cheques was originated in 1891 by the American Express Company with the object of creating a form a travel currency which would give the holder the security of a letter of credit and at the same time the convenience of local currency. The Company registered the cheques under the trade of 'AMERICAN EXPRESS TRAVELERS' CHEQUES' the world "Travellers' being spelled with one "L" The advantage of the Cheques was so apparent that other banking institutions adopted the system."

FORMER RESIDENT.

RETIRING AFTER THIRTY YEARS IN CHINA.

> A former resident of Hongkong in the person of Mr. W. E. Schroeder, who for over thirty years has been associated with cable work in China, has left Shanghai on retirement.

Mr. Schroeder was born in Copenhagen in 1868 and joined the Great Northern Telegraph Company in 1887. He was sent to Newcastle and then he went to Argentine in connexion with telegraph construction on the rallway. Returning he was all stationed in Gotenburg, Sweden, and then in Finland. In 1895 ho was cent to the Far East, and his connexion with China has been uninterrupted since that year.

Mr. Schroeder was first of all stationed in Hongkong and then in Shanghai, and in 1900 was transferred to Chefoo. That was arens should be turned over to the | which it lends its support. There | the year of the Boxer trouble, and he organized the new cable station there. Following upon this he returned to Shanghai, and since 1904 he has been superintendent there, a post which he has just relinquished. It is satisfactory to know that his work, often difficult and arduous, gained the appreliciation of his own country and of China, for he was made a Knight of Dannebrog and was decorated with the Order of the Chia Ho; fourth glass.

Volunteering and Racing.

In many respects Mr. Schroeder has taken an active part in the doings of the foreign communities with which he has been associated. In 1897 he joined "A" Co., S.V.C., The only bid received was through | and holding the rank of corporal, was in charge of the signal section of the whole Corps. He also took a keen and practical interest in racing, and while in Cheefoo was a steward of the club. It is interesting to mention that his jockey there was Mr. Arthur Parkhill. He continued his interest in racing on coming to Shanghai, and at various times owned several excellent ponics although never securing the highest honours. Probably the best he over had was Trylle II which in 1921 beat Mr. John Toek's crack animal Wilson, but Mr. Schroeder is candid enough to express the opinion that the win was probably more to the fine riding of Mr. W. Hill than to the merits of the pony.

END OF THE OFFICE ASSAULT SUMMONSES.

Payment of compensation to the extent of $25, accompanied by a full apology from Mrs. J. E. Ollerton, was the basis on which Miss G. D. Glover has consented to a settlement, out of Court, of the case in which she was to have proa charge of assault while she herself appeared as defendant in a cross-summons.

The affair was stated to have occurred on a recent Friday in the offices of the Asiatic Petroleum Fri. 16th Nov at 3 p.m. Company in Asiatic Building, where both had been employed. There had been a change in legal advice, and instead of Mr. P. M. Hodgson, who originally acted for Mrs. Ollerton when the summons first came up before Mr. R. E. Lindsell last week, Mr. F. E. Loseby, of Messra. Russ and Co., appeared yesterday before the prowess on the links. He was unsame Magistrate to make the announcement as regards the settle-

Mr. M. K. Lo (for Miss Glover): Your Worship, now that the crosssummons has been withdrawn, there is only one matter before you, and that is the original summons on which I am appearing before your Worship with Miss Glover as complainant.

I am happy to say since the last adjournment, in fact in the course of this morning, I have received through Messrs, Russ and Co. an unconditional apology from Mrs. Ollerton for this assault and also a sum of $25 as compensation for the assault. My client has accepted it. Now that it has been we do not wish to trouble your Worship further with the case, and therefore I will also ask leave to withdraw this summons.

His Worship, to Mr. Loseby: You have no desire to fight the original summons?

Mr. Loseby having replied that that was so, his Worship said: Summons and cross-summons are dismissed

The case had aroused a fair amount of interest and many would-be spectators including a number of European ladies, who arrived late, were plainly disappointed when informed of the abrupt ending of the case. Amongst the last to make their

BANKING HOUSES TO DEAL WITH HUGE CONCERN.

New York, Nov. 13. Mr. Edward Doheny, the wellknown oil magnate, whose Californian petroleum companies are estimated to be worth at least $43,000,000 has decided to retire. Two New York banking houses are arranging to take over his oil securities and to form a new company to be known as the Pacific Western Oil Company, and it is stated that Mr. Jacques Vinmont will be chairman of the Board of the new Company. It is further understood that Mr. William McDuffle, former production manager of the Royal Dutch Shell companies, will be President.

If the present plans are carried out, the banking houses will shortly issue about $30,000,000 for public subscription.—Reuter's American Service.
